English Banana Trust is a charity based in North Norfolk, England. Our aim is to spread the use and understanding of the English language all over the world, helping people to find routes out of poverty. Our current objectives are:

- to hold an annual English Banana Summer School – launching in August 2012
- to hold workshops with English teachers around the world at their schools, training them to get the most out of English Banana.com material
- to encourage the development of brand new free English Banana.com material

If you would like to help, please consider becoming a Friend of English Banana Trust. As a Friend you will receive regular email updates with our latest news, and have the chance to give regular financial support that will help to make our future plans possible.
