Student Induction Form

Complaints Procedure:

If you need to make a complaint about the school, you should follow this procedure. If you are not happy with the outcome, continue to the next stage. At any stage you can bring a friend:

1. If possible, talk to the person who you want to complain about
2. Talk to your teacher and centre manager
3. Write to the school's director
4. Write to the local authority who gives funding to the school

Disciplinary Procedure:

If we find that you are consistently breaking the class rules, or if you should cause a serious problem to your class, teacher or to the school, we will follow this procedure. We will continue through the stages as necessary. In addition, non-attendance of classes for four weeks without a valid reason may result in the termination of your place. Please note that any serious breach of the rules will result in your place on the course being terminated without warning:

1. Meeting with your teacher and/or centre manager
2. First written warning
3. Second written warning
4. Final written warning
5. Formal termination of your place on the course
